MAYOR WILL PRESIDE

Capt. Jones to be Master of Ceremonies on Memorial Day

JUDGE MONTAGUE HAS ACCEPTED

He Will Deliver the Address—R. E. Lee Camp Will Meet Tonight to Arrange for the Exercises—Daughters Will Tender Mrs. Jackson a Banquet and Reception.

Sheriff R. K. Curtis, commander of R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, last night issued a special call for a meeting of the camp tonight to arrange for attending memorial exercises in St. John's cemetery next Wednesday afternoon.

Commander Curtis is desirous of having a large attendance of the veterans tonight, as well as on Wednesday.

The committees in charge of the program for the Memorial Day exercises have practically completed their work. Judge Edgar E. Montague has accepted the invitation to deliver the address, and Mayor Thornton P. Jones will preside.

The exercises will take place in the cemetery at 4 o'clock and will conclude with the placing of flowers upon the graves of the dead Confederate veterans. The committee on flowers makes the request that all who can do so will send the flowers to the parish house by not later than noon on Wednesday.

The committees in charge of the exercises follow:

Program—Messdames H. Clay Rees, H. W. Booker and Robert Marcus. Flowers—Misses Annie Richardson, Mal Tabb, Ida Rees, Pecky Booker. Music—Mrs. H. W. Booker. It is expected that a band will be present to furnish the music.

The program as arranged will be as follows:

Prayer—Rev. A. C. Hopkins, Jr. Song, "Virginia"—School Children. Introductory ceremonies. Address—Judge Edgar E. Montague. Selection—Band. Closing exercises. Benediction—Rev. Reverdy Estill, D. D.

To Banquet Mrs. Jackson.

The two chapters of the Daughters of the Confederacy—Hampton and Old Point Dragons—are making extensive arrangements to entertain Mrs. Jackson, the widow of General Stonewall Jackson, who is expected to visit Mrs. H. M. Bell here early in June. A reception and banquet will be tendered the distinguished lady in the Augusta Hotel on some date to be agreed upon as soon as Mrs. Jackson can be communicated with. The Daughters are determined to show Mrs. Jackson every courtesy possible while she is in Hampton.

Rev. Mr. Truett Will Speak. Rev. George W. Truett, of Dallas, Tex., one of the most eloquent preachers of that State will address the Mens' Bible Class, of Memorial Baptist Church, Hampton, next Wednesday evening.

Visit Historic Yorktown.

Steel Steamer Montauk will make a special trip on Sunday, May 19th, affording excellent chance for delightful water trip and for seeing the spot where Cornwallis surrendered. 5-16-17

WOODMEN'S UNVEILING PROGRAM FOR TOMORROW

Live Oak Camp to Pay a Pretty Tribute to Its Dead Member, the Late W. E. Erpenbeck.

The committee of arrangements of Live Oak Camp, No. 21, Woodmen of the World, has completed the program for the unveiling of the monument to the late William E. Erpenbeck, in the National Soldiers' cemetery, tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The Woodmen and their friends will assemble at Greble Hall at 3:30 o'clock and with the Port Monroe band will march to Armistead avenue, where they will meet the visiting Woodmen from Newport News and the various Tidewater towns.

The program will be as follows:

Overture, "Nearer My God To Thee," Fortress Monroe Artillery Band.

Quartet, selected, Messrs. I. P. Richardson, Robert Holt, Thornton Bonnevill and George Massenburg.

Unveiling Poem, read by Sovereign Commander J. C. Root, of Omaha, Neb.

Selection, Fortress Monroe Artillery Band.

Quartet, selected.

Unveiling of Monument erected to the memory of Sovereign William E. Erpenbeck.

Lodge ceremonies.

Introduction of orator of the occasion, by S. B. Latham, State Manager.

Oration, Hon. Morris Sheppard, Sovereign Banker, of Texarkana, Tex.

Closing ceremonies.

The members of the camp are expected to assemble in their room at Greble Hall tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

A special steamer bearing the members of the Sovereign Grand Camp which has been in session in Norfolk will arrive at Old Point at noon tomorrow and the visitors will participate in the exercises.

Sovereign Root, who was to have read the ode, will be unable to come, and Mr. J. E. Fitzgerald, sovereign manager, of Kansas City, will take his place.

Quite a number of the members of the Grand Ladies' Circle of the Woodmen will be here.

Aside from the Woodmen it is expected that a large crowd of local people will attend the unveiling, as the exercises will be open to the general public.

REGULARS WILL FIGHT

National Body of Jr. O. of A. M. After the Independents.

CASE NOW IN CHANCERY COURT

Petition Presented That the Case be Reopened and Reviewed—Further Arguments Will be Heard by Judge Grinnan Next Monday.

(Special to The Daily Press.)

RICHMOND, VA., May 17.—That the national body of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics will wage their fight against the "Independents," the State councils that seceded, was made manifest today. C. V. Meredith and W. L. Royall, counsel for the "Regulars" appeared before Judge Grinnan, in the Chancery Court and inaugurated proceedings looking to a review and reopening of the case. The attorneys submitted three bills of exceptions relating to the proceedings in which Judge Grinnan imposed a fine upon Forbes and others for contempt of court. These bills the lawyers prayed the court to sign.

Samuel A. Anderson, a counsel for the "Independents," opposed the petition of the "Regulars." F. W. Christian, his associate in the case, is not in the city, and on this account Judge Grinnan after hearing the petition, continued the proceedings until next Monday.

Attorney Royall said this evening that he expected to get a favorable decision from the State Supreme Court at Wytheville June 4 ordering the reopening of the case.

Celebrated Birthday Anniversary.
